Attorneys for Plaintiff

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

Scott Johnson

Plaintiff,

v.

Milhouse Properties LLC, a
California Limited Liability
Company

Defendants.

Case No.

Complaint For Damages And Injunctive Relief For Violations
Of: Americans With Disabilities
Act; Unruh Civil Rights Act

Plaintiff Scott Johnson complains of Milhouse Properties LLC, a
California Limited Liability Company; and alleges as follows:

PARTIES:

1. Plaintiff is a California resident with physical disabilities. Plaintiff is a level C-5 quadriplegic. He cannot walk and has significant manual dexterity impairments. He uses a wheelchair for mobility and has a specially equipped van.

2. Defendant Milhouse Properties LLC owned the real property located at or about 2214 Business Cir, San Jose, California, upon which the business “Alex’s 49er Inn” operates, in May 2021.

1       3. Defendant Milhouse Properties LLC owns the real property located at 2 or about 2214 Business Cir, San Jose, California, upon which the business
3 “Alex’s 49er Inn” operates, currently.

4       4. Plaintiff does not know the true names of Defendants, their business 5 capacities, their ownership connection to the property and business, or their 6 relative responsibilities in causing the access violations herein complained of,
7 and alleges a joint venture and common enterprise by all such Defendants.
8 Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the Defendants herein is 9 responsible in some capacity for the events herein alleged, or is a necessary 10 party for obtaining appropriate relief. Plaintiff will seek leave to amend when 11 the true names, capacities, connections, and responsibilities of the Defendants 12 are ascertained.

13
14       JURISDICTION & VENUE:

15       5. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the action pursuant to 28
16 U.S.C. § 1331 and § 1343(a)(3) & (a)(4) for violations of the Americans with 17 Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. § 12101, et seq.

18       6. Pursuant to supplemental jurisdiction, an attendant and related cause 19 of action, arising from the same nucleus of operative facts and arising out of 20 the same transactions, is also brought under California’s Unruh Civil Rights
21 Act, which act expressly incorporates the Americans with Disabilities Act.

22       7. Venue is proper in this court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and is 23 founded on the fact that the real property which is the subject of this action is 24 located in this district and that Plaintiff's cause of action arose in this district.

25
26       FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS:

27       8. Plaintiff went to Alex’s 49er Inn in May 2021 (three times) with the 28 intention to avail himself of its goods or services motivated in part to 1 determine if the defendants comply with the disability access laws.

2 9. Alex's 49er Inn is a facility open to the public, a place of public
3 accommodation, and a business establishment.

4 10. Unfortunately, on the dates of the plaintiff's visits, the defendants failed
5 to provide wheelchair accessible parking in conformance with the ADA
6 Standards as it relates to wheelchair users like the plaintiff.

7 11. Alex's 49er Inn provides parking to its customers but fails to provide 8 wheelchair accessible parking.

9 12. Several problems that plaintiff encountered were there were parking 10 stalls and access aisle marked and reserved for persons with disabilities with 11 slopes that exceeded 2.1%. Additionally, there was no "NO PARKING"
12 warning and no striping in one of the access aisles. One parking stall 13 designated as reserved for persons with disabilities did not have an access aisle 14 that accompanied it. Finally, there was no accessible parking whatsoever in the 15 rear parking lot.

16 13. Plaintiff believes that there are other features of the parking that likely 17 fail to comply with the ADA Standards and seeks to have fully compliant 18 parking for wheelchair users.

19 14. On information and belief, the defendants currently fail to provide 20 wheelchair accessible parking.

21 15. These barriers relate to and impact the plaintiff's disability. Plaintiff 22 personally encountered these barriers.

23 16. As a wheelchair user, the plaintiff benefits from and is entitled to use 24 wheelchair accessible facilities. By failing to provide accessible facilities, the 25 defendants denied the plaintiff full and equal access.

26 17. The failure to provide accessible facilities created difficulty and 27 discomfort for the Plaintiff.

28 18. The defendants have failed to maintain in working and useable

1 conditions those features required to provide ready access to persons with 2 disabilities.

3 19. The barriers identified above are easily removed without much 4 difficulty or expense. They are the types of barriers identified by the 5 Department of Justice as presumably readily achievable to remove and, in fact,
6 these barriers are readily achievable to remove. Moreover, there are numerous 7 alternative accommodations that could be made to provide a greater level of 8 access if complete removal were not achievable.

9 20. Plaintiff will return to Alex's 49er Inn to avail himself of its goods or 10 services and to determine compliance with the disability access laws once it is 11 represented to him that Alex's 49er Inn and its facilities are accessible.
12 Plaintiff is currently deterred from doing so because of his knowledge of the 13 existing barriers and his uncertainty about the existence of yet other barriers 14 on the site. If the barriers are not removed, the plaintiff will face unlawful and 15 discriminatory barriers again.

16 21. Given the obvious and blatant nature of the barriers and violations 17 alleged herein, the plaintiff alleges, on information and belief, that there are 18 other violations and barriers on the site that relate to his disability. Plaintiff will 19 amend the complaint, to provide proper notice regarding the scope of this 20 lawsuit, once he conducts a site inspection. However, please be on notice that 21 the plaintiff seeks to have all barriers related to his disability remedied. See 22 Doran v. 7-11, 524 F.3d 1034 (9th Cir. 2008) (holding that once a plaintiff 23 encounters one barrier at a site, he can sue to have all barriers that relate to his 24 disability removed regardless of whether he personally encountered them).

25
26 I. FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION: VIOLATION OF THE AMERICANS
27 WITH DISABILITIES ACT OF 1990 (On behalf of Plaintiff and against all 28 Defendants.) (42 U.S.C. section 12101, et seq.)

1       22. Plaintiff re-pleads and incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth
2 again herein, the allegations contained in all prior paragraphs of this 3 complaint.

4       23. Under the ADA, it is an act of discrimination to fail to ensure that the 5 privileges, advantages, accommodations, facilities, goods and services of any 6 place of public accommodation is offered on a full and equal basis by anyone
7 who owns, leases, or operates a place of public accommodation. See 42 U.S.C.
8 § 12182(a). Discrimination is defined, inter alia, as follows:

- 9           a. A failure to make reasonable modifications in policies, practices,
10           or procedures, when such modifications are necessary to afford 11           goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or 12           accommodations to individuals with disabilities, unless the 13           accommodation would work a fundamental alteration of those 14           services and facilities. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(ii).
- 15           b. A failure to remove architectural barriers where such removal is 16           readily achievable. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv). Barriers are 17           defined by reference to the ADA Standards.
- 18           c. A failure to make alterations in such a manner that, to the 19           maximum extent feasible, the altered portions of the facility are 20           readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities, 21           including individuals who use wheelchairs or to ensure that, to the 22           maximum extent feasible, the path of travel to the altered area and 23           the bathrooms, telephones, and drinking fountains serving the 24           altered area, are readily accessible to and usable by individuals
25           with disabilities. 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(2).

26       24. When a business provides parking, it must provide accessible parking.

27       25. Here, accessible parking has not been provided in conformance with the 28 ADA Standards.

1       26. The Safe Harbor provisions of the 2010 Standards are not applicable
2 here because the conditions challenged in this lawsuit do not comply with the 3 1991 Standards.

4       27. A public accommodation must maintain in operable working condition
5 those features of its facilities and equipment that are required to be readily 6 accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities. 28 C.F.R. § 36.211(a).

7       28. Here, the failure to ensure that the accessible facilities were available
8 and ready to be used by the plaintiff is a violation of the law.

10       II. SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION: VIOLATION OF THE UNRUH CIVIL 11 RIGHTS ACT (On behalf of Plaintiff and against all Defendants.) (Cal. Civ.
12 Code § 51-53.)

13       29. Plaintiff repleads and incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth
14 again herein, the allegations contained in all prior paragraphs of this 15 complaint. The Unruh Civil Rights Act (“Unruh Act”) guarantees, inter alia, 16 that persons with disabilities are entitled to full and equal accommodations, 17 advantages, facilities, privileges, or services in all business establishment of 18 every kind whatsoever within the jurisdiction of the State of California. Cal.
19 Civ. Code § 51(b).

20       30. The Unruh Act provides that a violation of the ADA is a violation of the 21 Unruh Act. Cal. Civ. Code, § 51(f).

22       31. Defendants’ acts and omissions, as herein alleged, have violated the 23 Unruh Act by, inter alia, denying, or aiding, or inciting the denial of, Plaintiff’s
24 rights to full and equal use of the accommodations, advantages, facilities, 25 privileges, or services offered.

26       32. Because the violation of the Unruh Civil Rights Act resulted in difficulty, 27 discomfort or embarrassment for the plaintiff, the defendants are also each 28 responsible for statutory damages, i.e., a civil penalty. (Civ. Code § 55.56(a)-

(c.)

33. Although the plaintiff encountered frustration and difficulty by facing discriminatory barriers, even manifesting itself with minor and fleeting physical symptoms, the plaintiff does not value this very modest physical personal injury greater than the amount of the statutory damages.

PRAYER:

Wherefore, Plaintiff prays that this Court award damages and provide relief as follows:

1. For injunctive relief, compelling Defendants to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Unruh Civil Rights Act. Note: the plaintiff is not invoking section 55 of the California Civil Code and is not seeking injunctive relief under the Disabled Persons Act at all.

2. For equitable nominal damages for violation of the ADA. See Uzuegbunam v. Preczewski, --- U.S. ---, 2021 WL 850106 (U.S. Mar. 8, 2021) and any other equitable relief the Court sees fit to grant.

3. Damages under the Unruh Civil Rights Act, which provides for actual damages and a statutory minimum of $4,000 for each offense.

4. Reasonable attorney fees, litigation expenses and costs of suit, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12205; and Cal. Civ. Code §§ 52.
